Dear Ms. Brooks,

On behalf of the Toronto Public Library Board, I congratulate the Royal Ontario Museum on its 100 years of service to the people of Toronto.

The Royal Ontario Museum's prominence within our city's cultural landscape has never been more relevant – and inspiring – than it is today. As Toronto Public Library prepares for the opening of our 100th branch in early 2015, we reflect on the dedication, commitment and vision that has made the Royal Ontario Museum one of Toronto's – and the country's – most respected and trusted cultural institutions; a place where the values of lifelong learning, engagement and enlightenment are not only encouraged, but celebrated.

These values are particularly evident in our Museum and Arts Pass partnership. As one of our key MAP partners, the Royal Ontario Museum ensures its programming and services are accessible to all people of Toronto. We look forward to continuing and cultivating that partnership in the years ahead and wish you all the accolades you rightly deserve on your milestone anniversary.

Sincerely,

Michael Foderick
