It is recommended that the Toronto Public Library Board:

1. receives Communication (a) from Harry Orbach-Miller, Toronto Public Library Board member to Sue Graham-Nutter, Chair, Toronto Public Library Board dated June 3, 2019, advising of his resignation from the Toronto Public Library Board, for information.

Monday, June 3, 2019

Sue Graham-Nutter
Chair, Toronto Public Library Board
789 Yonge Street
Toronto, ON
M4W 2G8

Dear Sue,

It is with significant regret that I submit this letter as my formal resignation from the Toronto Public Library (TPL) Board, effective June 3, 2019. Due to accepting a position in Ottawa as a designated public office holder, it would be untenable to continue as a Board member since I can no longer attend a sufficient number of meetings.

While my time on the TPL was cut short, in the small time I was involved with the Library it became evidently clear that it provides a deeply valuable and indispensable service to the residents of Toronto. I wish Board members, Library staff, volunteers, and supporters continued success in the stewardship of this essential organization.

I'll be rooting you all on from afar.

All the best,

Harry Orbach-Miller
