

b.Nancy Marshall - Libraries are not gravy

From: "kristina@cannex.com" <kristina@cannex.com>
To: <councillor_ainslie@toronto.ca>
Date: November 1, 2011 12:17 PM
Subject: Libraries are not gravy
CC: <councillor_matlow@toronto.ca>, <mayor_ford@toronto.ca>, <nmarshall@torontopubliclibrary.ca>

Dear Paul Ainslie,

Closing 38 neighbourhood library branches and cutting branch hours, programs and library staff, is exactly what the city should not be doing. Such measures will be counter-productive to our economy and will deny access to knowledge and learning precisely when we need it most. I urge you to preserve and protect Toronto Public Library services and staff and our neighbourhood branches, and reject proposals to diminish them.

Sincerely,

Kristin Lyublinskaya
55 Brownlow Ave
Toronto M4S 2L1

cc:
Councillor Josh Matlow

cc:
Rob Ford

cc:
Library Board Secretary