Planning for Retirement on a Low Income

Tue Feb 15, 2022
6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
120 mins

John Stapleton, Open Policy Ontario and financial advisor and author, and Karen Macqueen outline what low-income earners and advisors need to know about planning for retirement. They will cover:

- How to minimize GIS claw backs when planning for retirement
- OAS and GIS eligibility for newcomers
- What counts as taxable income and what does not

Very informative. Look forward to reading the additional materials. Excellent, thank you!

Thank you very much for a wonderful presentation.

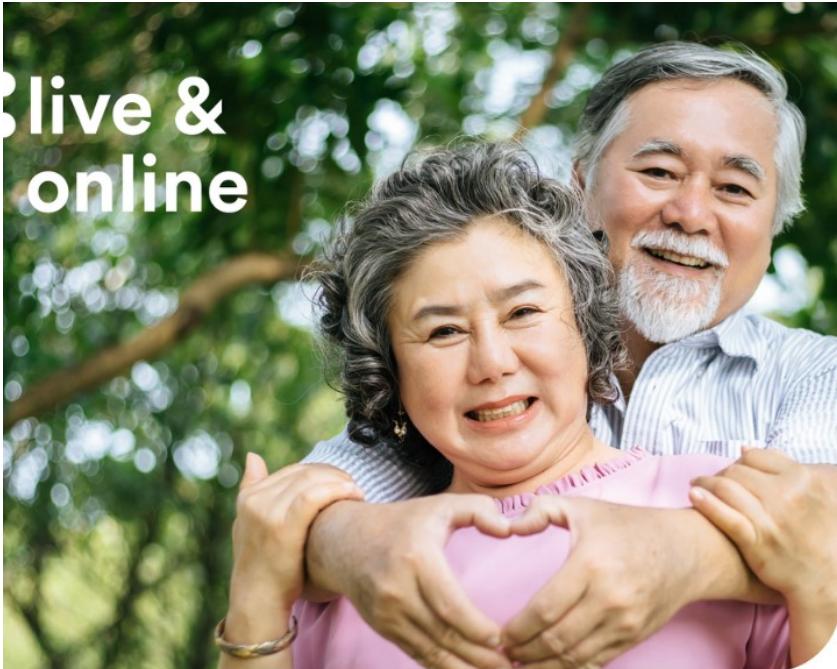

Thank you. Valuable information.

I ❤️ TPL

I really appreciate your work with low-income seniors!

Highlights CanAge & TPL

"This information is so relevant to me because I received a grant for teaching digital literacy to older adults. And I'm embarrassed to say that I didn't even think of including e-readers. I've remedied that now. I have followed up on other links that were presented during the presentation such as the "Cyber Seniors" program. THANK YOU!"

(Using Technology to Stay Connected)

"Evidence-based research and honest dialogue"

(Cannabis and Older Adults)

"I was impressed by how knowledgeable the speakers were and the wide ranging discussion on the topic of ageism (i.e. economic issues, societal impact, etc.)."

(Stop the Stigma: Ageism)

"The speakers had lots of information, great interaction between the viewers and speakers."

"I thought the chat moderator was the best I've seen." (Fake News)

Organization: Canada's National Seniors' Advocacy Organization

Toronto Public Library (TPL) is the busiest urban public library in the world and a leader in delivering innovative services to its customers of all ages and backgrounds. In October 2020, TPL and CanAge partnered to strengthen each organization's ability to support and better serve seniors. The goal is to develop more opportunities for seniors
