Dear Ms Bryant:

Naming of the Black and Caribbean Heritage Collection at the Parkdale Library

I am writing in support of naming the Black and Caribbean Heritage Collection at the Parkdale Library after its founder, Dr. Rita Cox, former Head of the Parkdale Branch Library.

This collection has been an integral part of the Parkdale inter-cultural community since 1972 and over the 33 years of its existence has been responsible for raising the consciousness of Caribbean Literature within the wider literary community and making the Parkdale Library a 'place to go – a must see'. The Black and Caribbean Heritage Collection and the library programming conceived and supported by Dr. Cox enabled young literary artists of African and Caribbean descent to develop and showcase their talents and abilities. In fact the collection's success gave birth to other Black & Caribbean collections at York Woods, Cedarbrae, and the Maria A Shchuka public libraries. .

Our diverse communities continue to benefit from collections like these and by ensuring that the uniqueness of each collection is preserved, we pay tribute to a person who was far-sighted and innovative to see the need and ensuing benefits. And what better way to name the collection after its founder: The Rita Cox Black and Caribbean Heritage Collection.

Sincerely

Hon. Jean Augustine, P.C., M.P.
