ISSUE BACKGROUND

Section 16(1) of the Public Libraries Act requires that a board shall hold regular meetings once a month for at least ten months each year.

In accordance with the Toronto Public Library Board Procedural By-law, the schedule of Board meetings for the year is approved each year at the First Meeting. The first meeting of the Board is defined as: After a municipal election, the first meeting of the new Board following its appointment by Council. In other years, the first meeting of the Board in the calendar year.

The Board is usually provided with the proposed meeting schedule in the fall for information to assist Board members and staff in making long-range plans, when the City's meeting schedule for Council and its Committees is published. In an election year, this practice is delayed until after the first meeting of Council, usually in early December. In 2018, the City schedule was not available until after the Board's December meeting.

The City's meeting schedule for Council and its Committees allows time for the City's special committees, agencies and special purpose bodies to schedule their own meetings. The Board's 2019 schedule provides for the requirement to hold regular meetings once a month for at least ten months each year.

At the September 23, 2013 meeting, the Board approved the scheduling of two Board meetings in alternate branches to the Toronto Reference Library (TRL), locating meetings in each of the four quadrants of the city over the course of a two-year period.
