

International Women's Day Programming – March 2015

BRANCH/DATE	PROGRAM	ATTEND
Barbara Frum March 2	Women in Sport	10
Burrows Hall March 3	You're Not Alone In partnership with Catholic Cross Cultural Services. A social worker from the Legal Aid Dept of Family Court in Newmarket addressed the issue of domestic violence.	18
Gerrard/ Ashdale March 3	A Score of Women's Voices An NFB film	9
Toronto Reference Library March 3	Women's Health in Prison Ruth Ellwood Martin and Mo Korchinski on their new book, Arresting Hope: Women Taking Action in Prison Inside Out , a story about women in a provincial prison in Canada.	38
Toronto Reference Library March 3	Third Annual Bluma Lecture: Louise Arbour	480
Woodside Square March 4	Women and Money Learn the true impact of caring for children/aging parents, how to survive separation/divorce and secure lifelong independence.	16
Spadina Road March 5	The Disappearance of Indigenous Women: Whose Issue? Author Lee Maracle (UofT First Nations House) talks about continuing violence against indigenous women, historically and present day.	57
Barbara Frum March 9	Tru Luv Project Grade 8 single mum suggested theme of empowering young women. Brought 4 guest artists, motivational speakers, entrepreneurs.	40
Maria A. Shchuka March 10	Get Empowered on International Women's Day Sandra Whiting, Chair of Jamaican Canadian Association, talks about how self-talk and self-praise can lead to success for women.	18
Bloor/Gladstone March 11	Centering the Voices of Indigenous Women Artist and activist Susan Blight discussed how indigneous women are reclaiming their traditonal knowledge and leadership. Hosted by TPL Writer In Residence Cherie Dimaline	34
Davenport March 31	Bangladesh. The collapse of the Rana Plaza Factory Producer of CBC's Fifth Estate's Made in Bangladesh discussed the lives of the women hired by the Garment Factories, the reasons for the collapse and what the western world is doing to help the victims.	56
Total		776