ISSUE BACKGROUND

After the schedule of 2021 TPL Board meetings was provided for information at the November 2020 Board meeting, the City published its proposed meeting schedule for Council and its Committees, around which the City's agencies, corporations and special purpose bodies may try to schedule their own meetings.

The City advises that where possible, scheduling public meetings, forums, public consultations and large scale meetings on days of cultural or religious significance should be avoided. There were two dates identified that conflicted with the original schedule for TPL Board meetings and as a result, two changes have been made:

- In June, the City has asked us to avoid scheduling any public meetings on Monday, June 21 as it is National Indigenous Peoples Day. We are proposing instead that the Board meets on Tuesday, June 22.
- In November, the City has asked us to avoid scheduling any public meetings on Monday, November 29 for Hanukkah. We are proposing instead that the Board meets on Monday, December 6.

In accordance with the Toronto Public Library Board Procedural By-law, the schedule of Board meetings for the year is approved each year at the First Meeting. The first meeting of the Board is defined as: After a municipal election, the first meeting of the new Board following its appointment by Council. In other years, the first meeting of the Board in the calendar year.

The Board's 2021 schedule provides for nine meetings in 2021, fulfilling its requirement to hold at least seven regular meetings in a year, as outlined in Section 16(1) of the Public Libraries Act. Should the COVID-19 restrictions on public meetings change earlier than expected, the Board meetings could return to the Toronto Reference Library. Until that time, they will continue to take place via Webex & Teleconference.

Beginning in 2014 at the Board's request, two meetings each year in the spring and fall would be scheduled in alternate branches to the Toronto Reference Library (TRL). In 2021, one meeting is scheduled to be held at the Agincourt branch on October 25, 2021. Again, should the COVID-19 restrictions on public meetings change earlier than expected, a meeting could also be held at the Bloor / Gladstone branch on April 26, 2021.
