

TPL Foundation Biblio Bash Update

May 2022

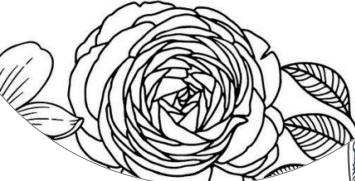

Record-Breaking Night of Fundraising

Attended by 38 notable authors and 420 guests, the sold-out black-tie gala raised significant funds thanks to table and ticket sales, sponsorships and on-site fundraising. Part of the proceeds will support one of TPL's most vital programs – Internet Connectivity Kits.

Biblio Bash raised

$837,807

in support of Toronto Public Library!

PRESENTING SPONSOR

PORTRAIT STUDIO SPONSOR

AUTHOR HOST SPONSOR

CHAMPAGNE RECEPTION & LOUNGE SPONSOR

DINNER SPONSOR

LATE NIGHT TREAT SPONSOR

The MacNamara Family

EVENT SPONSOR

EVENT SPONSOR

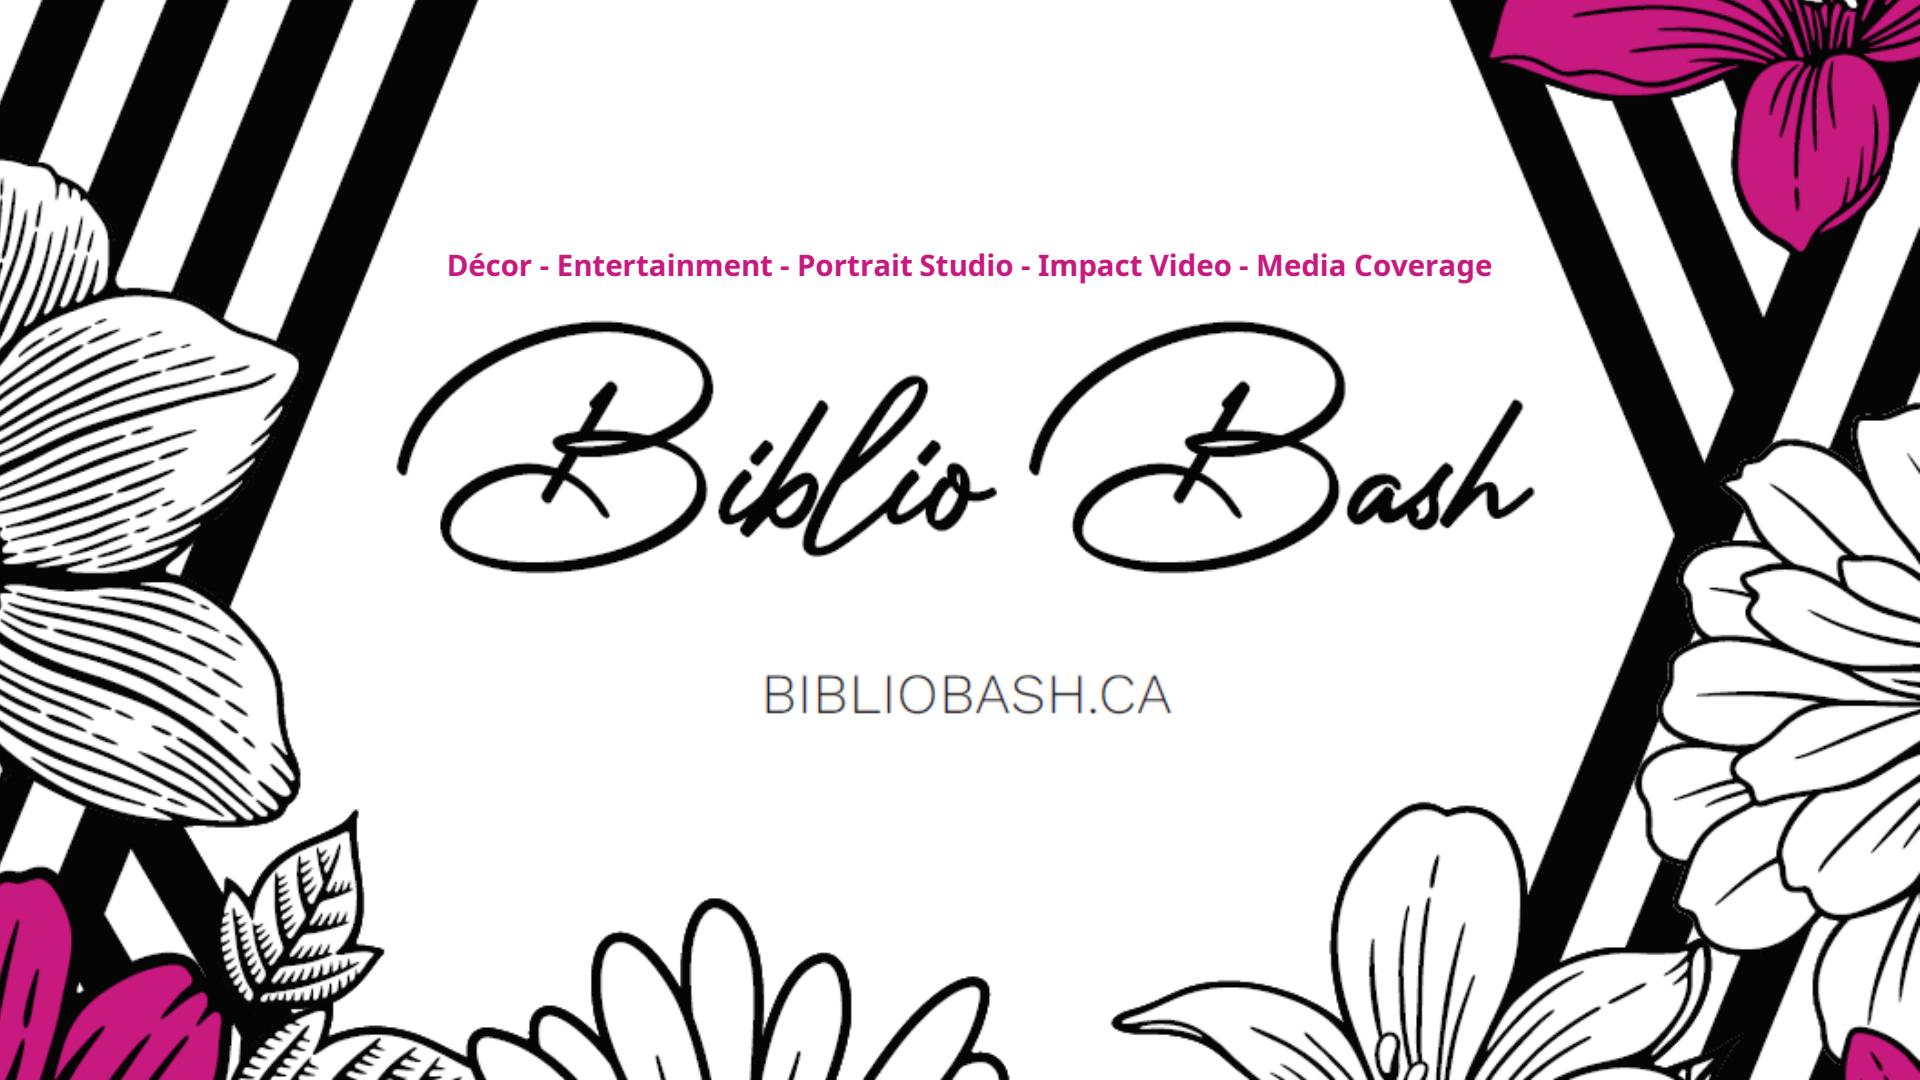

AIRLINE SPONSOR

CONNECTIVITY SPONSOR

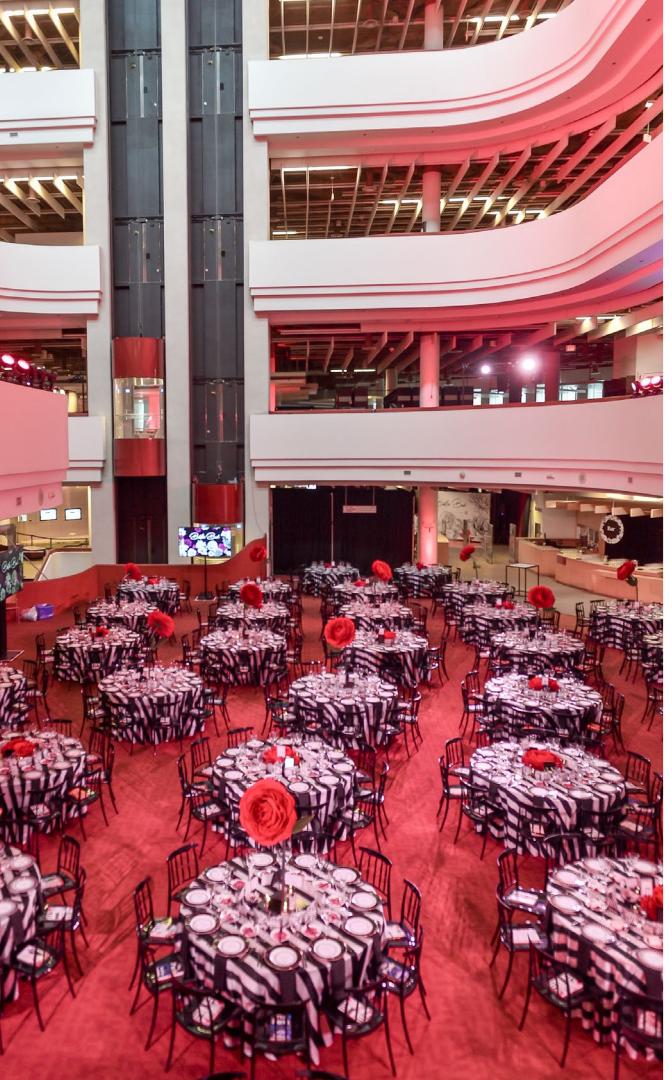

Décor - Entertainment - Portrait Studio - Impact Video - Media Coverage

Biblio Bash

BIBLIOBASH.CA

Spoken Word Performance by Ontario's Poet Laureate, Randell Adjei

Hosted by ETALK's Tyrone Edwards

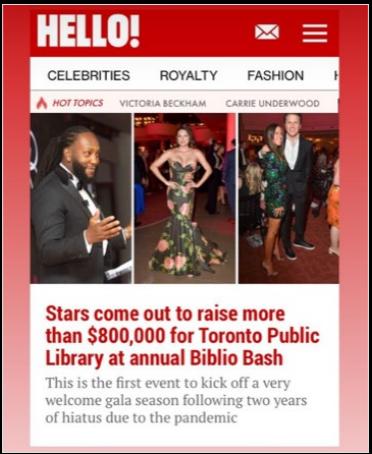

Portrait Studio: Photos by George Pimentel

facebook.com/tplfoundation

Select Media Coverage

HELLO!

CELEBRITIES ROYALTY FASHION

Stars come out to raise more than $800,000 for Toronto Public Library at annual Biblio Bash

This is the first event to kick off a very welcome gala season following two years of hiatus due to the pandemic

Star-Studded Gala Raises More Than $800,000 For The Toronto Public Library Foundation

REVATHY RAJAN | APRIL 14, 2022 | 3 MINUTE READ

THE GLOBE AND MAIL

CANADA WORLD BUSINESS

Biblio Bash in support of the Toronto Public Library Foundation, Toronto

ENTERTAINMENT OPINION

The city's beloved reference library, the crown jewel in the Toronto Public Library system, was the site for Biblio Bash, the first splashy gala of the spring season. After a three-year hiatus, many considered this latest, held April 7, as a spring gala rebound for Toronto.

The best-dressed literati at Biblio Bash

Jane Igharo, 31, writer

Reading can be very isolating. I usually only interact with people online—on Twitter, on Instagram—so I love seeing faces and talking to those who love and do the same thing that I do.

After a two-year drought, Toronto's elite finds social sustenance at the Biblio Bash

