Strengthening the Public Library as an Essential Part of Urban Life

The Urban Libraries Council is an association of public libraries in metropolitan areas and the corporations that serve them.

An alliance of more than 190 public libraries and corporations supported one another through idea-sharing, research, programs and industry change initiatives. All have been tailored to the needs of our communities and aimed at preparing libraries to serve the next generation of learners.

Overheard...

- “The point is not to focus on what’s dying, but on what’s being born, and where the opportunities are in this emerging world.” Joel Garreau, ULC Futures Virtual Scholar
- “...[you know] how important libraries are to the future of this city. Libraries...are the key to preventing children [from] going into gangs, guns and drugs. Immigrant families go to libraries. Kids whose parents are working ...go to libraries for homework. Libraries are anchors in communities...” Mayor Richard Daley, Chicago
  - "We embrace the power of libraries to anchor neighborhoods with free arts, culture, literacy and space..." Director Lon Dickerson, Jefferson Parish Library
