1927, March 20. A.L.S. from John _____, New York Times, expressing admiration for her performance in Electra and asking that she inscribe his copy of the play.

1933, December 17. A.L.S. from Mackenzie King, Laurier House, Ottawa. Thank you for the birthday greetings and roses from M.A. and Mr. Howard [Mr. Howard Hull, her husband]. Apologies for not stopping in New York on way back from Baltimore. Mention of extraction of some teeth to help arthritis. Holiday wishes to her and Mr. Howard.

1949, January 23. T.L.S. from Margaret Anglin Hull, New York, to Mr. Louis Mulligan of the Montreal Repertory Theatre. Mention of her illness the previous year and apologies for delay in answering her request [He seems to have asked for some memorabilia for the M.R.T. Library]. She replies that her theatrical possessions are in storage in Greenwich and that much was already promised to the New York Public Library, but will try to find him something. 2 l. + envelope
