Notice of Collection

The Toronto Public Library Board, through its operations at the Toronto Public Library, collects personal information on this form, and associated application and display materials, for the purposes of administering the Use of Library Space for Art Exhibits Program (“Program”), (including determining eligibility and award of space, communicating with applicants about the Program); and in addition to displaying submitted materials as artwork on a wall at a designated Toronto Public Library branch; reproducing and publishing the information submitted in the Toronto Public Library publications and promotional materials, including on its website. The Toronto Public Library Board collects the aforementioned information under authority of the Public Libraries Act, section 23(4)(f), and the Use of Library Space for Art Exhibits Program (“Program”), which it approved at its May 14, 2007 meeting. Questions about this collection can be directed to Program Manager, Adult Programs at the Toronto Public Library jgerroir@tpl.ca or 416-393-7785
